

Master Chocolatier

Learn the skills of a master chocolatier and enjoy your own

For chocoholics or those with a sweet a tooth, our Chocolate Masterclass is the perfect event to engage in.

Guests will have the chance to learn from a master chocolatier from the comfort of their own homes, or you can host the experience as a hybrid or socially distanced event. The hands-on element creates a unique shared experience whilst ensuring the safety of everybody at all times.

Depending on what you decide, guests will have the chance to mix, pipe, dip and decorate truffles, chocolate bars or lollipops with direction from the live host. They're only limited by their imagination so it's a brilliant opportunity to encourage creativity and maybe even a little competition.

And of course, you and your guests get to enjoy your creations at the end which is always an added bonus!

Event host

Hosted by a professional chocolatier, your guests will get the chance to learn more about the trade, the required skills and what it means to be full-time in the business of chocolate.

Our Chocolatiers likely have a very different day to what you and your guests are used to so it's a chance to gather inspiration and learn something new.

MemMail

To personalise the experience for each individual guest, there's the option of enhancing your event with MemMail. We source, personalise, pack and send so you don't have to worry about a thing.

- Send your guests everything they need to take part, including ingredients and tools, in a branded and personalised event pack complete with a handwritten note
- Send a thoughtful gift and handwritten message via our MemMail service to let your guests know you're looking forward to seeing them or to say thank you for attending
