

Tea Tasting Experience

Learn about the fascinating history of tea from a tea expert

Our tea tasting experiences are fascinating educational events that can be enjoyed by everybody.

A tea expert will talk you and your group through the detailed history of tea, from its origins in China to how it became the UK's most popular drink. You'll also be taught tips on how to brew the perfect cuppa, as well as interesting facts about creating the perfect blend.

Whilst learning about the history of tea, you'll have the chance to make and taste a range of teas whilst enjoying a slice of cake and cheddar biscuits. Everything you and your guests need to take part in the event will be delivered to their preferred address beforehand so there's nothing to worry about on the day.

There's also the option of upgrading your event with our MemMail sending service, which means guests will receive their tea package in a branded MemMail box with a handwritten note with your message. To find out more, talk to a member of the Inconnection team.
