

Cocktail Masterclass

Learn to make your favourite drink with a live or pre-recorded mixologist

Led by a professional mixologist, our cocktail masterclasses are a fun, engaging experience that everyone can get involved with.

Whether your guests are local or dispersed around the UK, our event format can be tweaked exactly to your needs for the very best experience possible.

All you need to do is choose from a range of cocktail menus, including mocktails, and we'll do the rest to make sure your guests have everything they need.

To make the experience extra special, there is also the option to upgrade the event with MemMail. We can package everything your guests need in a fully branded box and deliver it with a handwritten note and any extras you may want to include.

Event host

A professional mixologist will guide you through making some classic cocktails with the ingredients in your event pack.

Within each round there are interactive segments such as a speed round which add an extra element of fun and keep the group engaged.

There is also the option to tailor your event to the guests in your group or even pre-record it for a larger event such as a conference.

MemMail

Our sending service, MemMail, can be used to further personalise your event with handwritten invitations and gifts.

- We can send a handwritten invitation and branded gift to attendees to build anticipation and guarantee a boost in attendance
- Along with the ingredients and tools for taking part, we can include extra branded items like a branded apron or branded glassware
